DONATED FUNDS, MATERIALS, EQUIPMENT AND SERVICES

1.0 The Barre City School District welcomes and appreciates donations which support the philosophy, purposes, and programs of the schools. Gifts of funds, equipment, materials and services have served to extend the capacity of the school to broaden the educational experiences of the students. The School Board will be responsible for accepting gifts and donations and may delegate the responsibility to the administration.

2.0 The school district will establish the terms and conditions under which gifts and donations will be accepted.

3.0 The School Board and/or the administration must approve, in advance, any fund-raising program or project when the name of the school district, any school, or any school program is used.

4.0 Donations and/or fund-raising for donations may be accepted and approved when they:

4.1 Are consistent with the philosophy, purposes, and interests of the schools.

4.2 Do not expose the district to undue risk.

4.3 Do not compete or conflict with other approved efforts undertaken by the school, outside groups, or individuals.

4.4 Do not require related expenditures of school funds unless approved by the School Board.
